

Afterlife

by Bliss

The re-release of Bliss' debut album, Afterlife, which has been unavailable for the past two years, is music to the soul for those familiar with the seductive synthesis of chilled-out beats and ethereal vocals from these Danish musicians. A musical journey inspired by the phenomenon of near death experience, this album captures the strong feelings of harmony and bliss experienced by people who report having had a taste of the afterlife. Afterlife also includes four previously unreleased tracks.

www.cvibes.com

Senegal: Urban Rhythms

by Kasumai

Formed in Senegal and named after a greeting meaning "Peace with you", Kasumai captures the spirit of contemporary urban sound from Senegal. Urban Rhythms features the melodious kora (21-string harp), compelling vocals and a vibrant combination of traditional African drums and percussion and Western instruments. Founding band member Sagar N'Gom recalls the recording of the album in London as an eventful experience because of the "mix of Muslim and Christian musicians working harmoniously to produce biting, melodious social commentary and tributes".

www.arcmusic.co.uk

Diamond Light Meditation

by Lia Scallon

As the channel for the "Sounds of Sirius", Lia Scallon brings healing, nourishment and comfort to the soul through her Diamond Light Meditation CDs for women and men. Regularly allow yourself one uninterrupted hour to surrender to this profoundly healing combination of guided meditation and channelled sound designed to soothe your psyche, body and mind on all levels. "Recognising and resonating with these beautiful melodies and words, the soul reawakens to its true purpose, stirred to remembrance of its own divinity."

www.soundsofsirius.com

Divine Devotion: Music for inner peace

by Sacred Earth

Divine Devotion, the second album of award-winning artists Pene and Jethro, is a sublime melding of angelic female vocals, flutes of the world, acoustic guitar and gentle, soothing rhythms. (Pamanyungan, their debut title, was awarded Album of the Year by the Queensland Recording Association.) Salve for the soul, Divine Devotion invokes inner peace, celebrates complete love and encourages connection with the spirit of the divine. This is meditative music for cleansing the soul, dispelling darkness and reflecting on the bountiful gifts of the universe.

www.sacredearthliving.info

Memento

by Tony O'Connor

Memento is the latest offering from Australian composer, producer and performer of relaxation music, Tony O'Connor. Described by Tony as his "instrumental memoirs", Memento features soothing pieces performed on piano, electric oboe and strings that convey some of his most precious recollections of people, places and magical moments. These pieces will affect you positively on a vibrational level to promote relaxation, aid stress management, lower anxiety, soothe the soul and perhaps even rekindle your own precious memories.

www.tonyoconnor.com.au

